BANTON WHIG.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 31, 1838.

LETTERS - THE WHIG & COURIER.

[Excerpts from the Whig & Courier.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26, 1838.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE UNDER

CONSIDERATION:

This morning, in the House, "The Premier," Mr. Haynes, of Georgia, slowly and with dignity, arose and thus delivered himself.

"Mr. Speaker: It has been usual ever since the foundation of this government, down to the present moment, to refer the Message, annually delivered to Congress by the President of the United States, to the Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union, for consideration and reference."

"Mr. Speaker: At an early point in the present session, I involved myself in this matter by a motion, so that effect, so deeply, as to render it an interesting question, to me, to be settled. That motion has lain on the table, unacted on, up to the present moment."

"Mr. Speaker, I feel that I cannot divest myself of the onerous responsibility devolved upon me, in any other way, than by moving, as I now do, that the rules be suspended, for the purpose of considering it, and more over, to call it now I do, for the Year and Days."

Mr. Haynes resumed his seat hereupon, with the dignity appertaining to his character, office, and weight of influence in that body, of which he is the talented, acknowledged, and most worthy Leader.

The Years and Days were ordered. The honorable Premier's motion to suspend the rules prevailed, 112 to 26. The motion to refer the President's Message to the Committee of the Whole, was taken up and passed, and the Speaker called Mr. Adams to the Chair, to preside in such Committee. The Message was taken up, and Mr. Bell took the Chair.

He began at the beginning of the Message, and reviewed it at length, and to some purpose. He was especially critical upon that passage therein in which Mr. Van Buren has taken occasion to tell the American People how happy they are, at present, how well the machinery of their government is now working, and especially how "constant and direct" is now "the supervision, by the people, over every public measure." This last postulate Mr. Bell confuted in a masterly manner, by showing that, never, since the formation of the government, had the influence of the people, the source of all power, been so exercised upon public measures than now, and for the last six or eight years. He adverted to the peculiar kind of "supervision" "exercised by the people" of Philadelphia County, over the "public measure" of organizing the legislature of the State of Pennsylvania, as that "you never saw a high Mr. Van Buren possibly advertised in this passage." He put the case to that House, of the people of a State, or any portion of them, coming into that body, and resisting an obnoxious decision of the House, upon a contested election, by force: and took occasion to animadvert, in strong and pertinent terms, on the monstrous assumption lately set up as a pure democratic doctrine, by which such outrages were committed in certain quarters, to be looked on as only the proper "constant, and direct supervision, of the people over every public measure."

The whole of this speech was, as it began, searching, thorough and appropriate to the occasion. It went over all the corruptions and defections, with which the times are rife, and traced all of them the settled policy of this and the last past administrations. This policy he analyzed, and illustrated with striking and impressive illustrations of the spiritual tendency to oligarchy of dishonest and incapable men, instead of honest and capable men, on account of partisanship. He stated the startling fact, in this connection, that officers, known at the time to be great defaulters, had been renominated, and reappointed to office - in the course of the speech, Mr. Bell said before the hour a pro for the better protection of the revenue against fraud.

Mr. DRAKE, of Miss., next took the floor, and gave very elegantly a speech upon the subject. Of this, and the continuation I will give you an account in my next. After this, the committee rose and the House adjourned.

Prior to the elaborate and eloquent oration of Mr. Haynes, I should have stated that a letter from John Fairchild Governor elect of Maine, resigning his seat in this Congress, was read, and laid on the table, and, ~~as~~ of course, of the delegation of that State, the Speaker was authorized to apprise the Governor of the same, that there existed a vacancy in that delegation.

The Senate sat, in very small numbers, and did but a very little business, and that, of the most incidental character.

On motion of Mr. Clay of Kentucky, the consideration of the Graduation [Public Land] Bill was adjourned till next week.

On the Hon. John Huggins' and the Hon. Thomas Durkee, will please accept our thanks for their attention in forwarding us a number of public documents, and among them the Treasurer's Report. We find in the document, a list of the Receivers of the public moneys, or sub-treasurers, showing the balances now in their hands or pockets, the total amount of which is $15,000 and 75. Among the names of the sub-treasurers, is that of Rufus Parks, Milbank, who holds a balance in his hands of $14,000.

It is regretted that one or two important errors occurred in the advertising agent of the Boston Music Society in Saturday's paper in consequence of our mistake - and the proof is that it appears in to-day's paper, corrected according to the copy first published.

NOTES OF TRAVEL.

No. 1.

Wheeling Public Buildings, &c. etc. East Camden-Water Steam-Boats Crowded Cabins, &c.

Wheeling is situated on the east bank of the Ohio, 57 miles below Pittsburgh, by land, and about forty more by the course of the river. It was first laid off in 1793, and in 1820, the population amounted to about fifteen hundred, and in 1830, to upwards of five thousand. Directly in front of the town is Zane's island, containing about 350 acres, with which it is to be connected by a bridge. A large portion of it has been laid off into lots, and the island is now called Columbia city. The Great National Road passes over the island, and the stages now pass on a self-moving ferry. This is done by means of some half dozen boats of a peculiar construction, placed parallel with each other, and crosswise with the river, and all connected by ropes. The force of the current, acting on these boats, gives an impetus to them, and sends them with the ferry-boat back and forth with great ease. During the two days in which I remained at Wheeling, the boat was constantly crowded with stages, horses, and Pennsylvania baggage-men, laden with emigrants.

Wheeling is a place of considerable business among its public buildings, a Court House, jail, Market-House, a half dozen or more Banks, and several Hotels. Of the latter, much cannot be said in their favor, though they are superior to those in Pittsburgh.

Mr. Haynes remained his seat hereupon, with the dignity appertaining to his character, office, and weight of influence in that body, of which he is the talented, acknowledged, and most worthy Leader.

We find in the document, a list of the Receivers of the public moneys, or sub-treasurers, showing the balances now in their hands or pockets, the total amount of which is $15,000 and 75. Among the names of the sub-treasurers, is that of Rufus Parks, Milbank, who holds a balance in his hands of $14,000.

It is regretted that one or two important errors occurred in the advertising agent of the Boston Music Society in Saturday's paper in consequence of our mistake - and the proof is that it appears in to-day's paper, corrected according to the copy first published.

Mr. DRAKE, of Miss., next took the floor, and gave very elegantly a speech upon the subject. Of this, and the continuation I will give you an account in my next. After this, the committee rose and the House adjourned.

Prior to the elaborate and eloquent oration of Mr. Haynes, I should have stated that a letter from John Fairchild Governor elect of Maine, resigning his seat in this Congress, was read, and laid on the table, and, ~~as~~ of course, of the delegation of that State, the Speaker was authorized to apprise the Governor of the same, that there existed a vacancy in that delegation.

The Senate sat, in very small numbers, and did but a very little business, and that, of the most incidental character.

On motion of Mr. Clay of Kentucky, the consideration of the Graduation [Public Land] Bill was adjourned till next week.

On the Hon. John Huggins' and the Hon. Thomas Durkee, will please accept our thanks for their attention in forwarding us a number of public documents, and among them the Treasurer's Report. We find in the document, a list of the Receivers of the public moneys, or sub-treasurers, showing the balances now in their hands or pockets, the total amount of which is $15,000 and 75. Mr. the Cincinnati Whig states that Judge Tappan the newly elected Senator to Congress, is a brother to Arthur Tappan of New York, and nearly as decided an Abolitionist. It is also said that he is a disciple of Fanny Wright, and that now that priestess of Infidelity may now once more raise her voice in the caucus rooms of the party. Mr. T. is yet further stated, belonged to the old federal party, when that party existed.

Three of the Patriots taken at Prescott, and belonging to N. York, were hung at Kingston, one on the 10th and the other two on the 22d inst. On Friday week, two more of the prisoners sentenced by the court-martial, were executed at Montreal, one of them, a late member of the Provincial Parliament.

In all parts of the country, save Maine, rail roads are the order of the day. A rail road from Augusta, Georgia, distance 84 miles, has just been completed.

Dr. Butler, one of the emigrating Cherokee physicians, computes that 2000 out of the 16,000 of the Cherokees, have died since they left their homes in June, for the West.

John Fairfield, Governor elect arrived at 3pm on a Tuesday last, from Washington.

The Coldest. The Thermometer placed at the door of the Ranger House, was 21 degrees below 0, at 7 o'clock this morning.

From the Harrisburg Telegraph, Extra, Dec. 25. THE DEED DONE - PENNSYLVANIA DISGRACED MOB RULE TRIUMPHANT - THE CONSTITUTION AND THE LAWS TRAMPLED UNDER FOOT - THE SENATE.

We have the unwelcome news to communicate to our readers, that the Senate have this day, after a protracted sitting recognized the Loco-Foco branch of the House of Representatives, known as the "Hopkins House," as a legally constituted, and that all their acts were null and void.

This has mob law triumphed. Thus have the Constitution and the laws been outraged. Thus has the State of Pennsylvania been degraded and disgraced by those who were sworn to protect her institutions. Heretofore right rule and open revolution will at all times predominate over law and justice.

Those that have recited their abominable votes on both sides of this question, who, while influenced by a conscientious regard for the rights of the people, the law and the welfare of the country, stood to their duty and their oaths, but who have now basely bowed to mob rule, professed recreant to their trust, disgraced their constituents, degraded the Commonwealth and dismoralized their country, are JOHN STROHM, MILLER, of the city, M'CONNELL, MICHLER, CASE, and Old Gregory FULLER.

Upon these men the woeful responsibility rests upon them will fall the odium of an outraged, insulted and betrayed people! Their constituents will be shocked, & with surprise and indignation at their black hearted treachery. They will arise as one man and denounce the recreant traitors to law, to justice, to their own acts, to their country, and to themselves. Now and henceforth the mark of Cain will be upon them, and their names will go down to posterity accompanied by infamy.

We have no time to speak of this act of infamy and treachery as it deserves. Of the consequences that will follow to the country; and the vital stab it is to our free institutions, and to the cause of civil and Constitutional liberty.

The people understand it, and they will speak.

The call upon them to arouse and assert their betrayed rights, by such a course of action as they will feel bound to pursue, will not be disregarded. The general and spontaneous burst of public indignation will make the traitors tremble worse than the hired bullies and paid mobs, that have conquered patriotism by terror, and reigned by threats.

We should do injustice to our feelings and to those noble and praiseworthy supporters of the constitution and laws, Messrs. Fraley, of the city, Barclay, Cassatt, Clegg, Bonaparte, from Tampa. It appears that on the 30th ult. a sanguinary battle took place at Tampa, between the adherents of the government and its troops, and the federales, commanded by Gen. U. S. Grant, which the former were defeated, with the loss of 500 men killed and wounded.

Among the prisoners taken by the government troops, was Gen. Piedra, the commander of the troops, who was shot immediately after his capture.

The federal government had refused to acknowledge the treaty of Vera Cruz.

We learn from an authentic source, that only one of the delegation elect from Georgia, can be properly classed as a supporter of the anti-slavery Madisonian.

The Madisonian says: "We have at hand the direct evidence to prove that the Secretary of the Navy was the author of the assault on his department, and on those under him, who look up to him for protection from injustice."

The "OLD GUARD" DISGRACED, DISMISSED, AND EXTRAYED. We have a humiliating duty to perform in informing our old Democratic Antislavery friends of Lancaster Co. the "Old Guard" which never flinched when duly called, nor yet ever conquered, that their representatives in the Senate, those into whose hands they had placed their interests and their confidence, have basely betrayed and deserted them. That Messrs. Strohm and M'Conkey, who were the representatives of 12000 firm and unflinching freemen, have followed the example of Benedict Arnold, left the camp and gone to the enemy.

We know the people that they represent, and we can see with what indignation they will bear that they have been betrayed and made the butt of iron scoff and reproach. We can see their spirits fired with holy indignation against the traitors and their deeds. They will arise as one man, lay aside their resolute, and

Dr. Jayne's Expectorant.

This invaluable medicine is daily effecting some of the most astonishing and wonderful cures that have ever been known. All who have ever used it for Asthma, Cough, Spitting of Blood, Hooping Cough, Croup or Rhus, Consumption, Catarrh, Pleurisy, Hoarseness, Pain and Soresness of the Breast, difficulty of Breathing, and every other disease of the LUNGS and BREAST, can do no less than to us usefulness. BRONCHITIS, a disease which is annually sweeping thousands upon thousands to a premature grave, under the mistaken name of CONSUMPTION, is always cured by it. The usual symptoms of this disease (Bronchitis) are Coughs, Soreness of the Lungs, Throat, Hoarseness, Difficulty of Breathing, Asthma, Hectic Fever, a spitting of Phlegm or mucus, and sometimes blood. It is an inflammation of the fine skin which lines the inside of the wind tubes or air vessels, which run through every part of the Lungs. This Expectorant immediately suppresses the Cough, Pain, Inflammation, Fever and Difficulty of Breathing, and produces a free and easy Expectoration, and a cure is soon effected.

It always cures ASTHMA - two or three large doses will cure the CROUP or HUHS of Children, id from fifteen minutes to an hour's time. It immediately subdues the violence of HOOPING COUGH, and effects a speedy cure. "Hundreds who have been given up by their physicians as incurable with CONSUMPTION," have been restored to perfect health by it.

REV. JOHN JAYNE GOING, D. D. President of LANIVILLE COLLEGE, Ohio, writes: "He was laboring under severe cold, cough and hoarseness, and that his difficulty of breathing was so great that he left himself in imminent danger of immediate suffocation, but was perfectly cured by using this Expectorant."

Mrs. DIXIE, of Salem, N. J., was cured of Asthma of twenty years standing, by using two bottles of this medicine. Mrs. Ward, also of Salem, was cured of the same complaint by one bottle. A young lady, also of Salem, who was believed by her friends to be gone with Consumption, was perfectly relieved by three bottles." Dr. Hamilton, of St. James, South Carolina, was greatly affected by a cough, hoarseness and soreness of the lungs, and on using a bottle of this medicine, found permanent relief.

The following certificate is from a practicing Physician, and a much respected MEMBER of the Board of Directors of the American Medical Society.

Modest Town, Va. Aug. 27, 1838.
Dr. Jayne, Dear Sir, I have been using your Expectorant, extensively, in my practice, for the last three months, and for all attacks of OBESUS INFLAMMATION OF THE LUNGS, CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, PLEURAX, HEARTS OF THE BREAST, &c. &c. decidedly the best medicine I have ever tried.

Very respectfully yours,
R. W. WILLIAMS, M. D.

Extract of a Certificate from the Rev. Dr. Babcock, late President of WATERVILLE COLLEGE, Maine.

"From a personal acquaintance with Dr. Jayne, a regular student of the Medical University of Pennsylvania, and an experienced, successful practitioner of medicine, I was prepared to appreciate the numerous testimonials in favor of his different medical preparations, much more highly than the great majority of those which are extensively used. Of trial of them for my own family, and some of them personally, I have more than realized their favorable anticipations. They are what they profess to be - not quack nostrums, but skillfully prepared salutaries for some of the most difficult of human diseases. I know that they are highly esteemed, and frequently prescribed, by some of the most respectable of the regular practitioners of medicine in this city and elsewhere; and I do not hesitate to commend them as a valuable addition to our materia medica, and as safe, as well as eminently useful remedy for the diseased."

RUFUS BABCOCK, Jr.

Philadelphia, 7th June, 1838.

The Rev. C. C. P. Crosby, late Editor of the American Baptist, writes:

New-York, June 15, 1839.
To Dr. Jayne, Dear Sir, I have made use of your Expectorant, personally and in my family, for the last six years, with great benefit. Indeed, I may consider my life prolonged by the use of this valuable medicine, under the blessing of God, for several years. I may say almost as much in the case of my wife, and also of the Rev. Mr. Pinson, of the Island of Jamaica. For all cases of enough, inflammation of the chest, lungs, and throat, I do most unhesitatingly recommend this as the best medicine I have ever tried. My earnest wish is, that others affected as I have been, may experience the same relief, which I am persuaded they will, by using your Expectorant." C. C. P. CROSBY.

Extract of a certificate from the Rev. Mr. Bradford:

Dr. Jayne, Dear Sir, I am child, owing to exposure, when recently coming up the Ohio, was attacked by that horrible malady, CROUP. We landed in the night at Beaver Point, and when our fears were alarmed, least the hoarse, sepulchral cough was the forerunner of death, we gave him a teaspoonful of the "EXPECTORANT" (a bottle of which you presented me with in Philadelphia) and applied some liniment to the throat and breast; and before many hours the hoarseness was gone, the child breathed freely and slept sweetly. Owing to these circumstances it cannot be wondered at why I have so high an opinion of Dr. Jayne's medicine, and why I advise every family to keep it on hand, ready for any emergency.

Respectfully yours,

ARTHUR B. BRADFORD, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Darlington, Pa.

June 9th, 1839.

Numerous other certificates might be adduced, but the above are considered sufficient evidence of its great usefulness.
